Product Summary

Following a concert, entitled Heroes and Warriors, at HMS Collingwood it was decided to record the music and create Collingwood Band's debut CD "Heroes & Warriors". The recording was made in Ferneham Hall, Fareham, by Chevron Recordings, with the process lasting just under a week. The recording includes On Her Majesty's Service, Mons Grapius and music from the film Where Eagles Dare. Also recorded was, Call To Arms written by Kit Turnbull, a former RM Musician, which features a beautifully played muted Trumpet solo towards the end.
